Shepard Bros. Expands Operations in Stockton

In 2015, Shepard Bros., Inc. began its warehousing and distribution operations in Stockton to better service their Northern California and Pacific Northwest customers with reduced shipping costs, lower freight costs, and to reduce the company's carbon footprint. Headquartered in La Habra, California, Shepard Bros. also had additional warehousing and distribution points in Oregon and Idaho.

Earlier this year, the company announced its plans to expand its operations at the Stockton facility to include manufacturing. For over 40 years, Shepard Bros. has been manufacturing and supplying specialty chemicals and services to a variety of industries in the Western U.S. Shepard Bros. provides a comprehensive line of chemicals, equipment and service to the food and beverage, water treatment, commercial laundry and specialty industrial markets. The manufacturing area occupies over 30,000 square feet with an additional 2,000 square feet of office space on 1.82 acres.

Airgas USA to Build Production Facility in Stockton

Airgas, an Air Liquide company, is constructing a new production facility for liquid carbon dioxide (CO2) in Stockton. The new facility will be Airgas’s third strategically located CO2 plant in Northern, Central, and Southern California.

Airgas is the leading U.S. supplier of industrial, medical and specialty gases, as well as welding
The new plant in Stockton will use CO2 by-product from Pacific Ethanol’s nearby ethanol production facility and occupy an adjacent 3 acre lot. The new facility is expected to bring 30 new employees in manufacturing, distribution and management positions.

OPPORTUNITY ZONES IN STOCKTON

The State of California released its Opportunity Zones web portal. The new federal tax incentive program was approved in late 2017 as part of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act to encourage and support growth and investment in designated census tracts, referred to as “opportunity zones,” throughout the country.

In April, the U.S. Department of Treasury and Internal Revenue Service (IRS) announced the approval of designated opportunity zones in 18 states, including California. The City of Stockton received approval for 19 census tracts. Private investment(s) made through qualified opportunity funds within the designated opportunity zones would be susceptible to capital gains tax deferments, reductions or exemptions depending on the length of time the investment is held.

SOUTH SHORE WATERFRONT RFI

The City of Stockton is offering a unique opportunity to bring new development, transform the downtown waterfront, and be a part of the greater downtown revitalization.

The City is seeking letters of interest and project concept statements for the infill development of multiple vacant City-owned parcels located along, and just south of, the Stockton waterfront area, known as the South Shore. The City is seeking proposals that will stimulate the downtown waterfront economy and surrounding neighborhoods and reflect this unique waterfront location.

BUSINESS SURVEY

Dear Business Owner,

The City of Stockton invites you to participate in the new business survey because your business is an important part of our community.

To better understand the current business climate, we are looking to collect feedback on how your business is doing and how the City and our partnership organizations can provide assistance. The survey will take approximately 5 minutes and will include the opportunity for businesses to provide feedback regarding the current state of your business, future plans, areas for improvement, and any challenges and successes.

If you have any questions, please contact the Economic Development Department at (209) 937-8539 or via email. We thank you for taking the time to provide your feedback.
