CITY OF STOCKTON TO HOST TELE-TOWN HALL ON LOCAL MEASURES RELATING TO THE CORONAVIRUS (COVID-19)

STOCKTON, Calif. – The City of Stockton will host a teleconference to provide area residents an update on local efforts relating to the coronavirus (COVID-19), share best practices and updates specific to our local community. Out of an abundance of caution, the City of Stockton issued a proclamation on March 12, 2020, establishing a local emergency caused by the novel coronavirus (COVID-19).

Who: Mayor Michael Tubbs, City Manager Harry Black, San Joaquin County Public Health Officer Dr. Maggie Park, and Stockton Unified School District Superintendent John Deasy

What: City of Stockton Tele-Town Hall

When: Monday, March 16 from 1:00 – 2:00 PM

To receive a call when Tele-Town Hall begins, use the following link and fill out the form: <https://tthm.wufoo.com/forms/city-of-stockton-coronavirus-teletown-hall-sign-up/>. To listen without a reminder call, please call toll-free: 1-888-400-1932 (English) and 1-888-400-9342 (Spanish).

All members of the community and the media are welcome and encouraged to listen.
